Synopsis:

On 02/22/06 HQ Special Investigations Unit was notified by e-mail of a possible relationship between offender [REDACTED] and a CC3. Offender [REDACTED] had reported this relationship to her Community Corrections Officer (CCO) Robyn Riley after being arrested in the community for new charges and for failure to report.

Narrative:

The following interviews were conducted during the course of the investigation:

Offender [REDACTED] was interviewed in the Snohomish County Jail on 3/14/06 at 1200 hours. Also present was Investigator Thrasher. Offender [REDACTED] consented to the interview being taped; a transcription of the interview is attached to this report. Offender [REDACTED] stated that she first met Counselor Aguirre when she was housed in J-unit at WCCW in August of 2002. Offender [REDACTED] said that they began talking a lot in Ms. Aguirre's office and after 4 to 5, visits Ms. Aguirre told offender [REDACTED] she was attracted to her and if she wasn't imprisoned, would offender [REDACTED] have coffee with her. Offender [REDACTED] replied yes. Offender [REDACTED] related that it took about a month of talking to get to this point of the relationship. After that incident, offender [REDACTED] stated that Ms. Aguirre began writing things that weren't appropriate -- poems and notes, and telling her she had been dreaming of her and thinking of her.

Later in December of 2002, offender [REDACTED] said that Ms. Aguirre visited her mother and aunt at the aunt's house on [REDACTED] Tacoma, Washington. Offender [REDACTED] stated that her mother told her that she thought it was odd for this woman to call and ask to visit, and all she wanted to talk about was anecdotes from her childhood and see photo albums. Later Ms. Aguirre began to say things like "I can help you, I can be good for you, and I'm the best thing for you." Offender [REDACTED] stated that she really believed what Ms. Aguirre told her. Things began to get tense between [REDACTED] and Ms. Aguirre because offender [REDACTED] also had an offender girlfriend (offender [REDACTED] at WCCW. When offender [REDACTED] was released, she was picked up at the prison by her mother and recently released offender [REDACTED]. Offender [REDACTED] stated that Ms. Aguirre was at public access when she released in January of 2004.

Offender [REDACTED] said that she met Ms. Aguirre at the Best Western in Moses Lake, Washington on 2/28/2004. Offender [REDACTED] stated that Ms. Aguirre paid for the room and for the dinner in Kadie's Restaurant, later returning to their room where Ms. Aguirre brought out some marijuana and they both got high. Offender [REDACTED] also stated that they had sex together several times and on one occasion was asked by the hotel staff to be quiet as they were making too much noise. Offender [REDACTED] related that the sex was instigated by Ms. Aguirre and that she was very aggressive.

NOTE: The Best Western Lake Inn and Conference Center (formerly the Hallmark Inn) in Moses Lake was contacted on 3/24/06 and information was requested on a stay by CC3 Stephanie Aguirre on 2/28/04. The hotel management faxed back information (see attached) that shows that CC3 Aguirre did register and stay at that hotel on 2/28/04. The address given was CC3 Aguirre's at the time. Vehicle information given to the hotel also matched that of CC3 Aguirre.

The next month offender [REDACTED] said that she met with Ms. Aguirre at her mother's home in Issaquah, Washington. Offender [REDACTED] related that she had gone to see Ms. Aguirre because Aguirre's son, [REDACTED] had taken her car without permission and that the police had been to her house. Ms. Aguirre wanted to see offender [REDACTED] so she drove from Spokane, Washington and met Ms. Aguirre at offender [REDACTED] mother's home in Issaquah, Washington. Ms. Aguirre met offender [REDACTED] new stepfather and then they left in Ms. Aguirre's car. They drove to Ms. Aguirre's house. On the way they ate at Daniels's Broiler in Bellevue. The next morning they picked up Aguirre's son, [REDACTED] and had breakfast in Des Moines. Offender [REDACTED] commented that Ms. Aguirre's son was [REDACTED] and that the two other children were named [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] is the oldest at 20 and has a son by the name of [REDACTED]. Offender [REDACTED] also knew that the middle child [REDACTED] is around 16 and goes by a different last name of [REDACTED].

Offender [REDACTED] knew that Ms. Aguirre's daughter had moved to Alabama for awhile, but got involved in a murder trial of some kind and came back to Washington. Offender [REDACTED] stated that Ms. Aguirre had moved from Lacey to University Place in Tacoma.

The relationship started to end July of 2005 when offender [REDACTED] was confronted by her live in girlfriend offender [REDACTED] to make a choice between the two of them. Aguirre wanted offender [REDACTED] to move to Tacoma to be closer to each other, as the long distance relationship was hard. However, offender [REDACTED] did not feel like she wanted to move to the West side away from Ellensburg, where she lived with offender [REDACTED]. Offender [REDACTED] once answered the phone and told Ms. Aguirre that if she ever called or e-mailed again that she would contact DOC and tell on her. In September around the 5th, a Saturday night, offender [REDACTED] stayed over at Ms. Aguirre's apartment in Tacoma, who made it clear to offender [REDACTED] that she was going to stay with her, whatever she had to do, look for another job, whatever. Offender [REDACTED] left the apartment and called Ms. Aguirre from the 7-11 around the corner and told her she wasn't going to be with her Ms. Aguirre her told not to go back to Ellensburg and that she would be right there to get her.

The next week, offender [REDACTED] girlfriend came home from work and stated that she had lost her job and thought that Ms. Aguirre had called up her place of business and told them she was a felon and gay. They decided to move to the West side and be near their parents, and arranged for a transfer with their CCO in Ellensburg.

During this interview, offender [REDACTED] gave the e-mail addresses that she used to write to Ms. Aguirre and that MS. Aguirre use to write to her they were: [REDACTED]. Offender [REDACTED] stated that the two of them used marijuana every time they were together, and said that Ms. Aguirre had alluded to the fact that she had used cocaine in the past. Offender [REDACTED] knew who Ms. Aguirre was dating at WCCW after she left, and named Correctional Officer Debra Gordon. Offender [REDACTED] stated that Ms. Aguirre has a tattoo of a butterfly on her backside just above the thigh and that she had breast augmentation surgery. Offender [REDACTED] knew what type of cars that Ms. Aguirre had driven during the time period in question. When questioned, offender Aguirre could also describe the apartment that Ms. Aguirre had lived in. Offender [REDACTED] stated that she had been with Ms. Aguirre at least six times, and that they had spent the night together to include two nights at the Issaquah Holiday Inn.

Offender [REDACTED] stated that in the course of the relationship, Ms. Aguirre had bought her two rings - the first given to her when they were at Moses Lake. This ring was a white gold sapphire. The second was a yellow gold and sapphire ring she gave to her in Issaquah. Both rings were later pawned.

Offender [REDACTED] stated that she had pictures of Ms. Aguirre with her kids, and a card which was given to her Ms. Aguirre. She also claimed to have a receipt for the ring given to her by Ms. Aguirre. The above items were located in a "book" safe located in a Bothell, Washington storage locker rented by her girlfriend's mother.

NOTE: The receipt for the gift ring was in reality a cleaning and inspection card that would let the owner of the ring in the case of it being a gift, the ability to have it cleaned and checked without showing the receipt. When Helzberg Diamonds in Tacoma Mall was contacted they were able to give a receipt of the ring from the code on the inspection card. This receipt (see attached) shows the ring to have been purchased by Stephanie Aguirre on 7/20/05 for $920.38. When asked to describe the ring, it was said to be a sapphire ring with 12 round diamonds, and yellow gold. A ring as described by both offender [REDACTED] and Helzberg Diamonds was pawned by offender [REDACTED] under the AKA of [REDACTED] at the Pawn X-Change in Everett, Washington on 10/05/05 and was bought by person unknown at the store on 2/6/06.

Offender [REDACTED] was interviewed in the King County Regional Justice Center on 2/22/06 at 1200 hours.

Offender [REDACTED] consented to being interviewed and gave a written statement (see attached). During this interview, offender [REDACTED] stated that she had known of the relationship between offender [REDACTED] and CC3 Aguirre since it had begun at WCCW. Offender [REDACTED] related that she used to get jealous when CC3 Aguirre used to come and visit offender [REDACTED] after she was no longer her counselor and had no reason to talk to her. Offender [REDACTED] also stated that she knew the relationship continued after they had both left WCCW, but that she loved [REDACTED]. Offender [REDACTED] stated that she had seen the e-mails from CC3 Aguirre and had answered the phone when she had called. Offender [REDACTED] also related that she had warned CC3 Aguirre not to call anymore and threatened to call DOC if she did. Offender [REDACTED] also gave a written authorization (see attached) to get phone records from her Ellensburg phone company, however the phone company, Ellensburg Telephone, would not honor the written request but required a court order.

Offender [REDACTED] stated that CC3 Aguirre was the reason she had lost her job in Ellensburg, but would not tell me the name of the company so it could be verified, as she hopes to move back there again one day. Offender [REDACTED] also stated that she had seen the ring that CC3 Aguirre had bought for offender [REDACTED] – a diamond and sapphire ring. Offender [REDACTED] gave me her mother's phone number and authorization to call her mother to get the "book safe" out of the Bothell storage.

[REDACTED] mother of offender [REDACTED] was met at the Affordable Self Storage unit #1068 on 3/9/06 at 0930 hours. Also present were Investigator Thrasher and Detective Graves of Seattle PD.

[REDACTED] gave authorization for us to search the above storage locker and to take into evidence the "book safe." The safe was located and inside was found:

- One greeting type card addressed to [REDACTED] and signed Stephanie
- Two (2) photos of CC3 Aguirre and her son
- One (1) photo of CC3 Aguirre and her grandson
- One ring inspection card from Helzburg Diamonds of Tacoma Mall

(See attached photographs of evidence taken)

[REDACTED] (mother of [REDACTED]) was interviewed on 3/23/06 at 1235 hours at the Canyons restaurant in Bothell, Washington. Also present was Investigator Thrasher.

[REDACTED] stated that she had received a call from CC3 Aguirre in January of 2004 and wanted to meet. They met at [REDACTED] sister's house in [REDACTED] Washington. During this meeting, CC3 Aguirre said things like "I don't know where this relationship is going" and "I'm looking for a new job." During January of 2004, she called [REDACTED] over six times. [REDACTED] stated that CC3 Aguirre came to her house in Issaquah in September of 2004 and her [REDACTED] House in June of 2005. When she came in June of 2005, she brought her a dozen roses. During one of the visits, CC3 Aguirre cried because she was afraid [REDACTED] would go back to a life of crime. After the first visit at the aunt's house, [REDACTED] saw CC3 Aguirre at the prison as she was walking out to her car, CC3 Aguirre did not say hi or acknowledge her in any way. [REDACTED] stated that her daughter was torn between the two girlfriends, CC3 Aguirre and offender [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] remembers offender [REDACTED] giving her about 12 e-mails that were from CC3 Aguirre with the address [REDACTED] in it. [REDACTED] stated that the last time she heard from CC3 Aguirre was after the breakup on a Sunday morning about 0700 hours. After this call, she either hung-up or did not take the calls. [REDACTED] also supplied a copy of her phone records from August 2005; in that record is a call from CC Aguirre's home number. (See attached phone record.) [REDACTED] picked CC3 Aguirre out on a photo lineup (see attached) at the end of the interview as the individual who had visited her house on several occasion with and without her daughter.

[REDACTED] (aunt of [REDACTED]) was interviewed by telephone in Fayetteville N.C. at 0740 hours 3/24/06.

[REDACTED] was present when CC Aguirre came to her house to meet offender [REDACTED] in 2002. [REDACTED] said the visit was not about the job, but rather unprofessional. [REDACTED] stated that they sat in the living room and talked. [REDACTED] stated that CC Aguirre had stated that she had wanted to meet [REDACTED] mother and talk about [REDACTED] childhood. [REDACTED] related that after the visit that CC Aguirre had called the house on several occasions. [REDACTED] said that CC Aguirre had acted like a high school girl.

CC3 Stephanie Aguirre was interviewed on 3/16/06 at 0932 hours at MICC administrative building and 4/13/06 at 0900 hours at the MICC Bus Terminal Sergeant's office. Also present at the 3/16/06 interview were Investigator Thrasher and union representative CO Shrum. Also present at the second interview was union representative Kelly Peterson and Investigator McDaniel of MICC Intelligence & Investigations Office.

During the first interview, CC3 Aguirre denied all accusations of a relationship with offender [REDACTED] beyond that of a counselor and offender. When shown the pictures received from offender [REDACTED] she claimed that the offender could have stolen them from her office, though she didn't remember missing any. When shown the card with the signature Stephanie on it, she claimed it wasn't anything she had given the offender and the writing wasn't hers.

NOTE: A review of CC3 Aguirre handwriting samples and the signature on the greeting card show strong similarities. (Handwriting samples attached.)

CC3 Aguirre denied ever staying at a hotel in Moses Lake during the first interview, but during the second recanted when shown the hotel registration information received from the hotel in question, but declined to state who had been in the room with her. CC3 Aguirre did admit to having e-mail addresses as described by the offender. CC3 Aguirre denied ever making contact with offender [REDACTED] or her family at anytime after she released. CC3 Aguirre denied buying a ring for the offender and when asked where the ring was she had bought according to the receipt, she pointed to a ring on her finger that had baguette stones rather than round stones as described by the jewelry store. When asked how the offender could have gotten the ring inspection card, CC3 Aguirre stated, "She must have gotten it off my desk." The ring was bought after the offender had been released. CC3 Aguirre could not explain nor understand how the offender would have so much personal knowledge of her life and family, unless she learned it listening in prison. CC3 Aguirre admitted the information given by offender [REDACTED] about her children, homes, and vehicles was correct.

Physical Evidence:

- Ring inspection card dated 7/20/05
- Three photos of CC3 Aguirre and family
- One "love" greeting type card with "Stephanie" signature addressed to [REDACTED]
- Photo lineup used by [REDACTED] to identify CC3 Aguirre – signed by [REDACTED]
- Hotel registration information
- [REDACTED] telephone information with CC3 Aguirre's number

Summary: Allegations in this case are that CC3 Aguirre had a long term relationship with offender [REDACTED] that started at WCCW and continued after the release of offender [REDACTED]. Offender [REDACTED] has revealed knowledge of CC3 Aguirre's life and family such as:

- Names and ages of all CC3 Aguirre's children
- Knowledge of CC3 Aguirre's daughter having a child and the name of the child
- Knowledge of locations of CC3 Aguirre's homes during the alleged affair.
- Knowledge of types of vehicles owned by CC3 Aguirre
- Knowledge of a stay at a hotel by CC3 Aguirre to include location and date
- Knowledge of CC3 Aguirre's son's [REDACTED]
- Knowledge of ring bought by CC3 Aguirre to include type and time

Offender [REDACTED] also had physical evidence to support her allegations such as:

- Pictures of CC3 Aguirre and family
- Ring cleaning and inspection card for ring bought after the offender was released
- Greeting card with possible CC3 Aguirre's signature

Other physical evidence uncovered in this case includes:

- Telephone record with CC3 Aguirre's phone number calling offender's mother's house
- Hotel receipt placing CC3 Aguirre at hotel at time stated by the offender

CC3 Aguirre denies all the allegations but does not have a reason how the offender gained her personal information except that she overheard it while at WCCW. The pictures of her family CC3 Aguirre claims must have been stolen by the offender from her office at WCCW. The ring cleaning card also was claimed to have been stolen off her desk, however the offender was released more than a year before the ring was bought. The phone call from CC3 Aguirre's home number was explained as someone calling back a wrong number, however the call lasted 5 minutes.

The visit to the hotel was initially denied but was later explained as a stop back from a trip to Idaho. CC3 Aguirre refuses to give the name of the individual who was with her at the hotel. Two family members of offender [REDACTED] her mother and aunt both, have stated that CC3 Aguirre visited their homes, and the mother's [REDACTED] picked CC3 Aguirre out of a photo lineup more than two years after her last opportunity to see her at WCCW. Offender [REDACTED] also gave evidence that CC3 Aguirre called her house to talk to offender [REDACTED] and offered access to her phone records to prove it.

On 2-10-06 I contacted Ms. [REDACTED] at her home. She had been on abscond status since late September 2005. At that time she and [REDACTED] had just been given permission to ITR from Ellensburg to Everett. Prior CCO was Simon Barr. I asked [REDACTED] why she had not reported as directed by CCO Barr on 9-30-05 and she said "several reasons". I asked for more information and she informed me "she and [REDACTED] had been harassed and "stalked" by a CCO while in Purdy. She said she would not give me the name of the person who she was speaking of because she felt "all DOC employees stuck together and she was afraid of retaliation. She also informed me she had told CCO Barr all about it. I advised her no one could help her if she was not willing to file a report or at least contact someone in upper management in DOC. I also stated she had been living in Ellensburg for quite some time and if this event was so traumatic, how could she continue to report to CCO Barr. She informed me she had proof of the stalking and mentioned a letter, and some flowers.

I advised her to turn herself in and report the incident.

I called Steve Baxter on 2-21-06 at 360-725-8738 and informed him of the situation and he stated he had attempted to get this information from [REDACTED] and/or [REDACTED] for the past two years and they were unwilling to provide any names or dates for him. He stated he would try again and thanked me for reporting it and requested this e-mail

Since I met you,
All I can think about
is making you happy.
I want to see your smile
and hear your laughter.
I want to kiss away
all hurts and hold you until you know without a doubt that this is for real.
I want to memorize
the sound of your voice
and the dreams of your heart...

[Redacted]

Since I must report on my progress

since I have had more and more
since I have had more and more

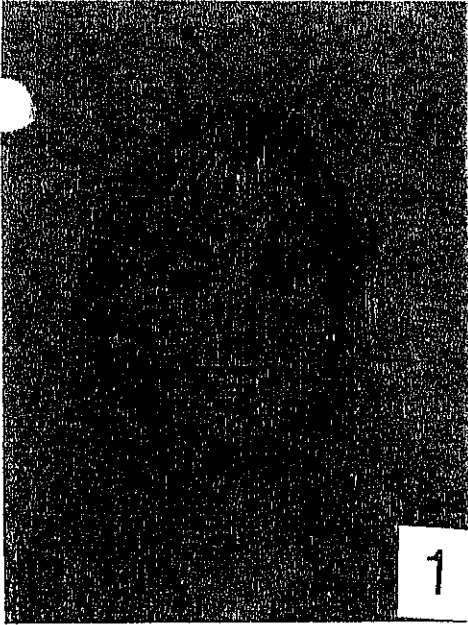

of the same kind
I have had more and more
of the same kind

More than anything else,
I want to make you happier than you've ever been before and give you all the things that you truly deserve.

Yours,

Stephanie

VETERANS INFORMATION

Military service is used for seniority purposes. A veteran will receive state service credit for military service time up to 5 years maximum. As a veteran, if you are earning more than $500.00 a month in retirement benefits, you do not qualify for this credit to your seniority date. Seniority time is used for reduction in force and retirement purposes. Veterans information is verified from your DD Form 214. If you are claiming Veterans Status for the first time, please submit a copy of your DD Form 214.

[REDACTED]

Please give Steve Baxter my telephone records. The records will be from 5/04 - 5/05.

Thank you.

[REDACTED]

0523

To: Steve Bayette

From:

[Redacted]

The first time I talked to Stephanie Bayette was to tell her to leave all my home again. She has totally interfered in my life since both and I write releases from prison. She called my home is Spokane also but I am not sure there is any calls from Spokane to her.

[Redacted] + I talked a lot about "killing" on her, but because of fear (on my part) we chose not to. Who would believe us? I only wanted to get Dosa behind me and move on. I know Stephanie was keeping track of both of us because [Redacted] would tell me things that were in the phone's that only a CO would know.

In Aug. of 2005 I was fired from my job in Ellensburg for no reason. I worked as a Job Coordinator for a Construction Co. I had been there for a year. I was so devastated because there was no warning what-so-ever. I had never been told that I wasn't doing my job + there was reprimand for performance. I know that Stephanie caused me to lose my job - Stephanie told [Redacted] that she did it so [Redacted] would not back over to the West side (Sea-Tac area).

Please talk to [Redacted] about these things. It was [Redacted] who was truly violated by [Redacted] (I don't know who that is).

of, one I - I love [redacted] and we are part of each others lives and Stephanie is DOC and the fear I felt and the power I believed she had is und~~er~~standable.

I made some mistakes and didn't trust some people I should have and did trust people
I shouldn't.

I'm sick to death of the power I gave her (Stephanie) I let her almost destroy me.
Yes, I do blame her.

When [redacted] + I were in Seattle, [redacted] was appearing on some talk show about her book.
She received a card from Stephanie, ~~that~~ we were staying at the Marriott on the Water
She received it there - not sure how. I believe there were also pictures of her ^{Stephanie} + her children.
I am also aware of a ring of (Diamond +
Sapphire) that Stephanie bought [redacted]

The attraction began here at WCCW.
[redacted] would tell me how uncomfortable
Stephanie made her feel and the things she would say to her.

The whole story will be told to you by [redacted] - Please Steve tell her to be totally honest with you - tell her I love her - that will never change.

[redacted]

The time is 12:00, March 14, 2006. We're at the Snohomish County Jail. Investigator Baxter; also present in the room is investigator Thrasher, and we have [REDACTED], can you tell me if you know that you are being taped?

Yes

And you have given me authorization to tape you?

Yes

Alright – would you go ahead and tell me about your relationship with, um

Stephanie

Yes

Aguirre

Yes

Will you start from the first, please?

Ok, on the first [REDACTED], I was taken to WCCW in 2002. I was put in -- this is all the closest I can to [REDACTED] and stuff. I know that I met Stephanie Aguirre in probably August of that same year – 2002. She was my counselor in J unit, and we immediately began having meetings about getting a job, take your LSI score and stuff like that. Our initial, I guess, uh, what I can say, just off the [REDACTED] I know that it took days for me to get my LSI done – some of the [REDACTED] inmates, new inmates, made fun of it or something to the office, rest of the office. It's not that big of a deal, and I did hit it off pretty good with Stephanie Aguirre. We had kind of an interesting sparring [REDACTED] here and there in her office, you know?

Like what?

Oh, she'd always give me a bad time for whatever I was doing in the units, and we just – we talked a lot, but we talked a lot – the people that were there that would have a mental note of it, and I know they would, would be [REDACTED], possibly [REDACTED], and [REDACTED] Oh, and [REDACTED] would know – [REDACTED] would say I was some kind of pervert stalking her, you know

Ok

But she wasn't there a lot of times and it was [REDACTED] – I think it was a lot of trips to the office – especially at count time, she'd call me in her office. After I was, say, 4 or 5 visits to her office, she told me she was very attracted to me, and it was hard to talk to me with a straight face. It was hard but, as we're sitting here, [REDACTED] on the side and the other side, the windows, just like they're in here, behind me, and that's where the inmates and officers could see us. And she would always say it's hard for her to sit there, because she couldn't – you know, she'd have expressions on her face that she thought were not appropriate, and she had to try to keep her focus in her work or her computer because of . I knew it was odd, and I was really uncomfortable at first. I think – I don't know how – I'm trying to put myself back in that time, but I also remember thinking to myself, well, hmmm. What he asked me was if I was a free person, and I wasn't, a felon, you know, a convict in prison, if I would have coffee with her. And I said yes.

How soon into this was that?

A month

A month or so?

Yup

And you said yes?

I said yes, I said yes, oh yes – and I said, um, I said I know you're police and all that, but, you know, we can be friends and I could see you at Starbucks, we could get a coffee  being friends. And, yeah, it was odd. And she began writing me things that weren't appropriate – gave me a poem she had written, and began telling me she was thinking about me, dreaming about me.

Do you have any of those?

Ah, I don't think so... usually, she, she made sure I got rid of everything  I do have the poem – it should have been in that book. OK I gave  that. Um, in fact, he's written it with some group she was in or something with some younger people. Anyway... So, anyway, now let me tell you about December of that year. She went to visit my mother at my aunt's house in Tacoma.

In ? or...

No, Tacoma. In fact where Stephanie went was [REDACTED] – or no, sorry, wrong – [REDACTED]  and I remember thinking, and my mom said I had an unusual visitor last night – and I'm not kidding you, I could not believe it. You know, she went, she wanted to hear, you know, and my mom thinks, I don't know what you're doing in there. The lady was really nice, and she seems to really care about you, but this is kind of like the extra mile with this counselor business, you know. And my aunt felt that she was a fruitcake. My mom, I guess...

What did they talk about? Do you remember?

My mom said they talked about little anecdotes from when I was younger, she wanted to hear all about me, she wanted to see photo albums, stuff like that.

Now, was she saying she was there because of her job? Or, do you remember? Has your mom told you about that?

Yeah, I hate to just make up a bunch of crap, you know...

No don't make up - only if you know.

I know - I know the part about the photos that  and I know the part that my aunt said she wanted to hear little stories about when I was little, and it was creepy. You know.

Ok - only tell me what you know.

Ok. But I'll also tell you this, you know, I don't know how thrilled my mom is going to be to be involved in this...

Well, she'll be in here shortly, then

Right, but I know that you can expect her to be real straight with you and tell you exactly - my mom has got a good memory. So - it should be helpful. They should be home by now.

Ok

Ok. Anyway, so I did, uh, I did use my, I don't know how I'd call it - that's fine - my little friendship with the police lady - I didn't use that for wanting to be moved to the neighboring unit with [REDACTED]

Ok

And, ah, that happened.

And did she know that's why you wanted to be moved?

Oh, no - not at this time. And when she did find out, she came storming into K unit and there was a temporary guy there that day, which was good for her, and for me.

Um, hum

Don't even know who it is - he's a nobody.

Ok

A big, confused man - that's what he was that day with all those women running around, you know . Anyway, she came there, and uh - it was after had I had a todo - I had a  - I had a little outburst at this [REDACTED] had made some nasty comments about me walking down the hallway, about, uh, well she  my mother, which didn't have anything to do with the conversation. I had had it, so like I gave a little lunge at her and, uh, they ended up taking me to seg to calm down. You know, so I went to seg, spent the night, Lt. Brees let me out the next day – it was great, it was Sunday, I really wasn't going anywhere, and she knew it really wasn't my MO and she let me go back to my room. That was great. Monday, when Stephanie came to work, she came slipping out (?) over to K unit – she said come in the back with her – I went in the back where the refrigerator is and all that – that back thing, and she asked me what happened, and why, and then, her main ask was she had heard through inmates that [REDACTED] was not my co-defendant, she was my girlfriend, and that she had been played. Yup – she was real mad.

What did you tell her?

I denied it – that she had been played  at the time. Actually, I mean I think, but, ah... I don't know. That's what I did. I know I was, I know I was being manipulative, and at the same time, well, kind of enjoying it. I mean, I and then she said no, I mean, when you're me, and you're at 19 felony points, and you've been to prison three times, and this lady that seems so together, you know, she was going to help me – she said I can help you, I can be good for you, I'm the best thing for you – I mean, I, you know, we can make a life together – you'll be off dope for three years, blah, blah, blah – and I really thought that she meant it. Fuck her. Just when I think I'm being a manipulator, too, I'm being manipulated!

And what happened after that?

Well after that, when I was in K unit, we talked sometimes on the sidewalk, stuff like that – that was about it - we tried to keep it really low because inmates were already talking.

Was there any contraband brought in to you?

Huh?

Did she bring anything in to you?

No

Nope?

No

Never?

Never

The whole time you were there? There's a Matchbox 20 cassette I thought she brought in to you that you were listening to one day.

Oh no – that was a matchbox  No, it was a Matchbox 20 CD and she bought it, and we listened to it in her office.

Ok – she didn't buy it for you – she just let you listen to it whenever.

That's right

Was any makeup or anything brought in?

Hardly ever wear makeup – no.

All the girls wear makeup.

I don't – nope

No food?

Nope – nothing

She never shared any food with you?

Nope

Ok, so you indicate  in July you say, no, she's just a friend.

Right – but you know what I told her? I just told her  the truth, you know? I was aware  with [REDACTED] and it was inappropriate. My behavior was inappropriate, [REDACTED] knew it was weird, you know, an inmate would come out and she'd say, you know, where's [REDACTED] at? She's in there with that counselor. And [REDACTED] would just have a fit. Well, go in there and get her.  And then pretty soon, [REDACTED] and Stephanie are sharing glares – between the gate and stuff like that, you know. Stephanie would look at her  tension, there was an issue  So anyway, I was released then in January of '04 – I was released on the 14th of January – and, I know, looking back, it was – she had called my mom – she had called my mom several times throughout the year – telephone calls. And my mom would give me messages, and  how I did it. But she called – she was really upset that I didn't contact her as soon as I got out. Well, as soon as I got out, I walked out to –  you messed this up by herself, you know, I walked out to my mom and [REDACTED] Well Stephanie was in public access that day...

I remember that.

 you're in your little area – anyway, she was knowing about  that day. And she thought that [REDACTED] was my sister. And [REDACTED] has been out for a while now, and been free, and people get a little bit of a different look when they're free, but you know, my sister? Wow. Then I made fun of her later and said how the hell could you think that? You know? My sister is 10 years younger than I am and [REDACTED] is 10 years older than I am. Anyway... Well, seven. Uh, so, it was my mom and my girlfriend and we went to Issaquah, and then, let's see, well I can tell you exactly the date - we met in Moses Lake on February 28th and stayed at the Best Western, I believe, room 224.

Did she pay for it, or did you?

Yes - she paid for it.

How'd she pay for it? Did you go in with her, or...

No - she had it already paid for when I got there. She's not a good girl - it will be on the computer (?) And  called up, um, Hallmark Inn, or Landmark Inn, or something like that - anyway, we had dinner at Kadie's Restaurant - we had steak with crab on it, hollandaise sauce, we had 2 or 3 drinks each, we went back to the hotel room and she pulled out her personal stash, and we got high.

Marijuana

Marijuana?

Um hum.

Did you do doobies or pipes, or what were you using?

She had a really fancy pipe. Blue - some kind of pipe I've never used. With a DOC button on it  (laughing) Cop  no, no, no, just making fun.

So you got high, and then what?

And then we slept together.

Slept together.

Right.

So you had sex

Yes

How many times did you have sex that night, do you think?

Several - we were asked to be quiet.

Ok. And did she instigate it, or did you instigate it?

Oh,  she was very, ah, very aggressive. I mean she didn't - I didn't say no, cause she - I would, I would never  instigate  isn't interested. You know. But anyway, so that's what happened, and, um, the very next month, one month from then, I went to her home...

Where was that at?

That was her home in [REDACTED] before she got the apartment in [REDACTED] where she is now. And, ah, in fact she had a bad day, her son [REDACTED] had - the cops had come to her door, and that he'd taken her car - or the car she had given her brother, he had taken it out for a test drive and got himself caught up with the police and she had a bad day with all that. So she wanted to see me, so I went to her house.

So you drove all the way from, uh...

Yeah

Ellensburg? From Ellensburg?

Yup.

She called...

No, no - at the time I was in Spokane then.

You were in Spokane - you drove all the way from Spokane to her house.

Yup.

She called you from her house in...

I talked to her at work. I talk to her at work all the time.

What do you mean - at the institution?

Yup.

So you essentially call into the institution.

Oh yeah - constantly. Yup, um hum. And so, let's see, I was in Spokane, we met in Moses Lake, we try to meet halfway, and then, well, I was coming to see my parents anyway - not that I wouldn't have driven, you know, anyway - I was coming to the Westside anyway to see my mom. And I saw Stephanie. In fact, let's see, oh - I did not go over to her house, we met at mom's, in Issaquah. She's already met mom - she already met my mother before.

Where at?

At my house, and, um, now she is meeting my mom, and my mom's new husband. He also bakes (?) fruitcake  I like it, my mom loves it. Good for him, he likes that. But still, so, Stephanie came to the – my mom had a mobile home on the river there in [REDACTED] that's where Stephanie came, and we left my car and took her car.

And where'd you go?

To her house.

In...

In [REDACTED] Yup. And I spent the night with her there.

Were her kids there?

Um, let's see, not this time.

Where were they? Any idea?

Um, ok [REDACTED] was at the neighbor friends – we had to be careful in her neighborhood, because some of the other DOC people lived around there. So she was real reluctant for us to be hanging out in that neighborhood.

So you spent the night and you had sex again?

Oh yeah. And she had... and [REDACTED] was there and we went to Daniel's Broiler and we went from mom's – sorry  - from mom's to Bellevue to Daniel's Broiler and I took her to dinner, and then we went to her place. And she called and said car [REDACTED] just stay there for the night and the people said yes and then the next morning, we went to get him and we all ate breakfast *****.

You ate breakfast? Do you know where you ate breakfast?

Uh huh – in Des Moines at that little place off the main drag in Des Moines, across from QFC. And her son is [REDACTED] – he  get the ketchup  get the ketchup. So, we had a good breakfast there with [REDACTED] then we drove back to, we drove to my mother's for me to get my car. And that was *****

The next time I saw her, let's see, I met [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] I think the next time.

That's her other two kids?

Yeah – the kids are [REDACTED], the oldest kid, she's 20 I guess now...

I've got no picture of him, do I?

* That's a girl.

Yeah.

This is her grandson. This is [REDACTED] boy, [REDACTED]

Ok

And that's Stephanie, and then this is [REDACTED] - and this is [REDACTED] The middle kid is [REDACTED] [REDACTED] (?), and the third, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] also?

Um hum

Same name?

Where are these pictures, in real?

In my office

Um hum

 They're safe.

Ok. I want them back.

I signed a receipt for them.

Ok

I just want them back, they're mine, I want them back, I like them.

so you know, Miller,  so you know for me, so I say that I know that [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] Those are the kids' names. And, um...

And their ages?

Um, [REDACTED] is 20 - something like that - she's... and [REDACTED] is, I guess he is 16 now, and [REDACTED] is 9 or real close anyway.

And the older one, do you know where she lives?

She lives with Stephanie.

Does she?

Um hum. She was back in Alabama, but she was involved, she was involved in a, she was a witness to a murder. And it was really ugly. They got rid of her. They had her testify and sent her back here. A really ugly, bad...

And what timeframe is all this going on, *****

Ah, this was in, this was March of 2004.

Ok

Ok. And then I saw her again other times and she moved out to - I can't think of what the name of the apartment building is - but she lives in 101. The bottom. [REDACTED]

And do you ever go there?

Oh, yeah.

And spent the night with her?

Yeah - often - I've been there a few times and spent the night with her.

So total do you know many times you might have been with her *****

Um, six.

Six?

Uh huh. Different occasions, yeah. And she's been to my mom's in Issaquah a couple times - maybe three times. We've met there. And also, one day, she had to go to a, well, she's at McNeil now, of course, so she had to leave McNeil and go to Kent for something to do with work, so we met in Issaquah just for coffee and lunch. So we go to this one place we went to quite often, in Issaquah, on the river, an Italian place - God, if I could only think of the name of it - something on the river. Anyway, our waiter was Noah - he'll remember us.

Italian place on the river.

Um hum.

He knew we were, he knew we were there together, and  to do about it, you know.

So things are going well, and you're seeing each other off and on .

Um hum.

Then what happened?

Ah – my girlfriend decided I wasn't going to be seeing her any more. And that she didn't find it appropriate that Stephanie would be calling our home.

And when was this?

That was last summer. Summer of '05. Or, excuse me – yes – Summer of '05.

June, July, August?

July

July?

 my mom , you know, had a nice wedding

Did she go to the wedding?

No! God no! She sure wanted to – she told my mom, she goes, you know, all that kind of crap, and of course, [REDACTED] will be at the wedding.

 Cause she bought you one, right? She bought you a ring?

She actually bought me two.

Two rings?

Um hum

Ok, tell me about the rings.

When I first came to Moses Lake,

The first time

The very first time we met, she had presents that were from all the holidays we had missed together.
